

The 2023 TORONTO PRAYER BREAKFAST

Bringing Christians together to pray for Toronto's leaders and our community.

Presented by  Canadian Bible Society

Tuesday, March 7, 2023 • 7:00 – 9:30 a.m.

The Brighton Convention & Event Centre
2155 McNicoll Avenue, Scarborough

The Toronto Prayer Breakfast brings Christians together to pray for our leaders and our community, as a public expression of our Christian love and faith.

Local clergy, ministry leaders and other members of Toronto's Christian community will gather along with leaders from Toronto's business, government, arts & entertainment, education and media sectors. More than 500 leaders are expected as we enjoy a hot breakfast, worship and pray for our city together, and listen to a message from our guest speaker, Rev. Dr. Andrew Stirling.

Tickets are $40. each, and Tables of 10 are $400. Tables can be reserved for churches, para-church ministries, community organizations and area businesses. For more information, or to purchase your tickets or table, visit www.torontoprayerbreakfast.com.

SPEAKER

Rev. Dr. Andrew Stirling

Andrew Stirling is an Ambassador for the Canadian Bible Society, and the former senior minister of Timothy Eaton Memorial United Church in Toronto. He is a published author and has taught Church History at the University of Toronto, Systematic Theology at Tyndale University Seminary, and Homiletics at the Toronto School of Theology. Andrew has preached and given lectures on four continents.

WORSHIP LEADER

Brooke Nicholls

Brooke Nicholls is a Worship Leader and Songwriter from Toronto. When she's not leading worship at her home Church, she's leading worship at different Churches and Ministries across Canada and beyond.
